Mayor Considers Advisability of Creating Restricted Crossings in Middle of Downtown Blocks

Jay walkers will be gratified to learn that two new safety crossings will be established on Main street, if the plans being considered by Mayor Overholser and the board of commissioners work out.

It has been suggested by business men along Main street that safety zones be placed across the street between Broadway and Robinson and Harvey, for the benefit of pedestrians who wish to cross the street and are unwilling to take time to go to the corner. The revision of a city ordinance may be necessary before the new zones can be established across a street where there is no intersection.

TULSA INVITES RETURN OF CALL

Chamber of Commerce Here Receives Resolution in Which City Is Urged to Make Visit to Oil Emporium

Secretary Brown of the Chamber of Commerce was the recipient Thursday of a vote of thanks from the directors of the Tulsa Commercial Club and the Tulsa Retail Merchants' association for the hospitable treatment received here upon their recent booster journey. The resolutions follow:

"Be it resolved, that we extend to the members of the Chamber of Commerce of Oklahoma City our most profound and heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the hospitable and unexcelled manner in which they extended the hand of friendship to, and so royally entertained the representatives of the Tulsa Commercial Club and of the Tulsa Retail Merchants' association on the occasion of the booster excursion of these two organizations on May 18 and 19, 1915; and,

Be it the sense of these two organizations that this special event was the occasion of cementing Tulsa and Oklahoma City in a lasting bond of fellowship and good will that will make for the everlasting prosperity and progress of the whole state of Oklahoma and every community therein, and

Be it further resolved, that we convey to the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce and the citizens generally of that metropolis our earnest desire to reciprocate at no distant date for the unparalleled reception and entertainment accorded us by them, and ask that they set aside a date, at their earliest convenience, for said reciprocal event to be held in the city of Tulsa; and,

Apparently this is another violation of the constitution.

Two members of the legislature are now employed by the state, both of them being paid from state funds. It is said now that it will be possible to pay Mr. Durant out of the other fund should the state auditor refuse to allow him to draw his salary from the $5,600 appropriation made by the legis-

WILSON WORKS

ON NEW NOTE

Second Communication to Germany Will Reiterate Statement That Lusitania Was Unarmed

WASHINGTON, June 3.—President Wilson worked most of today on the note to Germany. The situation had developed promptly whether German submarine commanders hereafter will respect the principles of international law.

The facts upon which the German government asked agreement, it is almost certain will be treated by the note as irrelevant, with one exception. It is understood the note will restate that the Lusitania was a peaceful cruise, did not resist capture and was unarmed.

It was reiterated at the state department today that, while affidavits filed there by the German embassy, contending that the Lusitania was armed, had been considered carefully, the proof of the United States that the Lusitania was unarmed was beyond question. None of the signers, in the opinion of officials, could have made an searching an investigation as did customs inspectors.

Had there been explosives aboard, officials say, clearance would have been refused. Before the Lusitania sailed all such facts were in possession of the American government. Compt Bernstorff conferred briefly with Secretary Bryan today.

POLICE COURT CHANGE

New Magistrate Favors One Session a Day and That in Afternoon—May Move to City Hall

One session of police court a day, which will be held at 1:30, will be the rule in Oklahoma City very shortly.

If the plans of Municipal Judge Leon J. Miller work out, Judge Miller has taken the matter up with Mayor Overholser and other city officials, and it may come up for settlement at the next meeting of the board of commissioners. The arguments for the new hour, with the combining of the two sessions, are that the officers making the arrests will be greatly benefited on account of their shift hours when they must appear as witnesses. An afternoon session will benefit the attorneys who are often busy in other courts in the morning, that the court clerk's work will be greatly lightened and that the city will save much time and money in the matter of bonds as the present afternoon sessions often last over until six o'clock, when many persons are unable to furnish bond after business hours, and must be kept over in the jail.

When the matter is taken up the New Magistrate Favors One Session a Day and That in Afternoon—May Move to City Hall

Six Thousand Give Rebel Yells and Cheer Stars and Stripes; Greatest Parade Ever Witnessed

RICHMOND, Va., June 3.—Sentries of the armies of the confederacy marched through the streets of Richmond today, shouting the rebel yell for old times' sake and cheering the stars and stripes in demonstrations of loyalty to the United States. In a military parade that eclipsed all former tributes to the armies of the south, six thousand gray-clad veterans contributed to a brilliant display of their 25th annual reunion in the fifth year since the end of the civil war. Three bombs exploded on Capitol Hill signaled the beginning of the military pageant which died through Richmond's thoroughfares, walked with unfaded footprints of stars and bars and stars and stripes portraits of the Southland's heroes and the president of the United States.

Through lines of cheering thousands the pageant moved to the monument of Robert E. Lee, venerated leader of the Confederate hosts and thence to a spot nearly in the shadow of the statue of Jefferson Davis, where a cornerstone was laid for a monument to General Thomas J. "Stonewall" Jackson.

VETERANS IN LEAD

Lowering clouds and chilly winds which came in the wake of two days of rain and delayed the pageant several hours, did not stem the tide of visitors to the old home of the Confederacy and constantly threatening elements failed to blanch the enthusiasm of the multitude. Heading the

ANDERSON OF E. DALLAS HOLDS MISSION ATTENTION

The School of Missions was conducted at St. Luke's church this morning as usual by Mrs. D. B. Wells and Mrs. J. P. White. The interest in the work has been growing each day. Mrs. L. C. Moore was the new teacher of the Junior Text book this morning and an event of the session was the excellent address delivered by Rev. William M. Anderson of the East Dallas church, at Dallas, Tex., who spoke on "The Church Witness."

Rev. Anderson is the guest of Rev.

and Mrs. Charles C. Weaver of the Central Presbyterian church. He will lecture this evening at St. Luke's before the School of Missions on "Stewardship."

The booster trip is scheduled to leave here at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning and will return to the city early in the evening.

BESIDES THAT HE'S A VURY, VURY GOODMAN

CHICAGO, June 3.—Solomon, who says he smokes, drinks or dissipates, prays daily and who animals shot in ten years, has been found dead in his room. His estate, worth $1,000,000, was yesterday received by his son, who is the trustee in the so-called "gratuitous" case.

"When I came from school," said the witness, "and had to get work in New York, I was just a clean-handed boy with no other ambition than to live an honest life."

"What made you do it?"

"Just little old Miss Norman. It is easier to be crooked than straight there, and more money, too."

"I got in with a bad gang and here I am."

This Is Name That Will Be Made to Stick in Public Mind Soon by Men Interested in Pure Bred Stuff

Incorporation papers were taken out today by the Southwest American Livestock Show association, which places the organization into existence according to the laws of the state, and signifies the permanent establishment of a livestock show for Oklahoma City. Officers of the association were elected about a week ago at which time bylaws and regulations of the association were adopted.

The annual show of the association will be planned as much as possible after these of Fort Worth, Denver and other cities, and those held here last spring, except that efforts will be made to improve the exhibits of livestock. It is the purpose of the organization to encourage the breeding of Oklahoma livestock.

Success In Galician Campaign Relieves Russian Danger From Cracow

LONDON, June 3.—When the Russians captured other Przemysl forts, they had no time to destroy the guns which on falling into Austro-German hands were turned by their new owners against the former fortifications, says a dispatch from Copenhagen.

LONDON, June 3.—After a siege of three weeks the fortress of Przemysl, in Galicia, has fallen to the Austrians. The Russians were in possession a little over seventy days.

Governor Williams was within the fort when he refused to permit Victor F. Harlow to make copies of supreme court decisions for the purpose of selling them in the opinion of many of the attorneys of this city. The case has been discussed a great deal since the governor's letter to Harlow was made public.

"I believe that President Wilson's note is largely due to the lack of relations between the government of the United States and the constitutional government of Mexico and that this has given room for many false reports which have victimized General Carranza attributing to him acts and omissions of which he is incapable."

"Mr. Carranza has already ordered the advance of his troops toward the city of Mexico, which he undoubtedly will take if one week is over, and I understand he immediately will establish there a provisional civil administration until he can sweep away the remnants of the revolutionaries and convince the people to elections for officers of a constitutional government."

"There is no danger, therefore, that strife may prolong itself in Mexico so long as there is great enthusiasm for the people. This can indicate to believe, is the only thing that worries the government of the United States."

CHARLES E. SELBY, assistant county attorney, said the governor was right in refusing access to the opinions. No person can legally make copies of them for sale, he said; except after having first obtained an official copy, in accordance with the law. Then he can furnish as many copies as he can sell to those who want them.

E. J. Goldings and other attorneys discussed the governor's letter to Harlow today and all agreed that Governor Williams had given a sound legal decision.

GOVERNOR RIGHT DESPITE KICKS

When Harlow Was Refused Right to Print Copies of Supreme Court Decisions, Refusal Was Justifiable

PEACE SCOUTS STAKED

Carnegie Foundation Will Defray Expenses of W. A. Goodell of Guthrie While He Preaches Andrews' Hobby

The Carnegie Peace Foundation of New York has offered to defray the expenses of a lecturer for the purpose of discussing the "Peace Relations of the World," a subject taken up by Mr. Carnegie and which has been presented to many of the colleges of the country. The state board of education, accepting the offer, has chosen W. A. Goodell of the Methodist university of Guthrie, to deliver the lecture, and dates will be arranged soon.

The first lecture will be given at the Cornell State normal at Edmund, the date not having been fixed yet.

It is the purpose of the Carnegie Peace Foundation to spread the spirit of peace throughout the world until finally wars will not be so likely.

The board of education in accepting the offer signifies its willingness to help in every possible way for the accomplishment of the purpose sought.

EDWARD G. HENSHAW is busily drawing the order which will apply as to conditions and the control of the Healdton oil field. Complaints were heard before the commission some weeks ago which alleged violations of the provisions of the new oil conservation law. Evidence was heard as to the equitable taking of oil from the ground, and upon this feature the order will be based.

The commission has studied the law from every angle in its relation with the production of crude oil and it is possible the order will go direct to the production of the oil.

It has been practically conceded that oil companies cannot be controlled in the manner in which they shall handle their production after it reaches the surface or is reduced to possession, but the commission some oil companies or producers who have existing contracts, it is understood, will test the law, as soon as any order is
